The Celebration of Teaching & Learning March 6-7, 2009, Hilton New York

The 2009 Celebration of Teaching & Learning is a premier professional development conference where K-12 educators come together to help shape the future of our schools. You will be invigorated by influential speakers, including Alan Alda, host of the new PBS production, THE HUMAN SPARK, on science; Temple Grandin, the world's most recognized autistic scholar, on autism; Danica McKellar, actress and author, on math for middle schoolers; Sir Kenneth Robinson, internationally-renowned expert in the field of innovation, on creativity; Eric Schmidt, Google, Chairman and CEO, who will be interviewed by Charlie Rose about technology; and Sesame Workshop's new cast of "The Electric Company" on literacy.

In addition to our internationally recognized Keynoters, "Featured Speaker" and "In the Classroom" sessions will give teachers direct access to the worlds of: Autism, English Language Learners, Global Awareness, Literacy, Math, Science, Technology, and Whole School Policy.

Join the conversation today by visiting thirteencelebration.org to sign-up for e-mail updates, share your knowledge, and be inspired by others!

"I was really inspired by the things I heard and got to see. I felt re-energized going back to work."
